loquay

It is a surname of French that was warped to the passage of the centuries, countries and languages to which some people emigrated. Those who were in Eastern Europe, wrote his name in language of that area and passing to the Western language is LOQUAY wrote, according to how it sounded its pronunciation and not as is wrote originally in French. As soon as that registered as a trade name, of a company, in Mexico is due to a legal error since the names are not registrable as trademarks since the quality of the products, said mark, affect a human with that surname, and this is one I saw olacion to human derrchos. The use of surnames as brand, discriminates against human beings to reference it with the products of this brand and any human deserves to be discriminated against because of the quality of a few commercial products.
